MARY PICKFORD AS 'CINDERELLA'

CHARMER SAYS

SNAKES HAVE GOOD POINTS

A new, modern and original version of the century-old classic, "Cinderella," a Daniel Frohman offering, produced by the Famous Players and featuring Mary Pickford, will be the attraction at Ye Liberty theater for the last half of the week commencing with the performance of tonight.

In the imposing and elaborate production which has been given to this wonderful story, illusion and reality are skillfully mingled and the famous little heroine of the children lives and breathes upon the screen, immortal.

TYPICAL OF WEST IN EARLY DAYS

The history of the building of the great and golden West, in the days when the trail blazer had but barely worked his way from the Atlantic to the Pacific seaboard, is told in a fascinating and interesting manner by Lasky and Belasco in "The Girl of the Golden West," the Paramount feature photo-play which will be presented at the Bijou theater tonight.

David Belasco claims the authorship of the original drama of "The Girl of the Golden West," which was later adopted to the operatic stage and finally made the subject of the silent drama.

IS SCOUTING FOR KOREAN WHO HAS TUBERCULOSIS

J. H. Fisher, morgue attendant, is out "scouting" for a Korean who has tuberculosis, and who evidently believes that the anti-tuberculosis bureau of the board of health can do him no good. The Korean, who gave his name as Kim Oh Sun, has not only gotten away from the bureau authorities, but he is thought to have infected at least 12 houses with the disease.

The Korean and another countryman was pronounced by the bureau to have tuberculosis. The Korean National Association offered to take the case. But the association had no sooner taken charge than Kim Oh Sun disappeared. The bureau worked on the case but was unable to locate the suspect.

Last night Fischer discovered that the Korean had been sleeping around in the houses of friends. At the last house at which he stopped the Korean told a friend he was going to Hilo. When morning came he walked out of the place, taking all of his friend's clothes with him.

If Fischer has anything to say about it, the Korean is not going to Hilo or any other place. If he is found he probably will be locked up until the bureau determines what shall be done with him.

SCHOOL TRYING TO KEEP OUT OF KOREAN JANGLE

Isaac S. Kim, a student at the Korean boarding school, in a statement to the Star-Bulletin today denied absolutely that the students either of the Korean boarding school or the Susanah Wesley home are taking any part in the fight in the Korean colony, growing out of the Korean National Association troubles.

"All the students ask is not to become involved in the fight," said Kim today. "An article by a former student of the Korean school, which was published yesterday, stating that Dr. Syngman Rhee armed his students with clubs, is false. Dr. Rhee, it is true, is fighting the embezzlers of Korean funds, but he has not carried the fight into the schools."

"We are trying to get an education and want nothing to do with political affairs or factional fights. The students of the school are indignant at being involved by this former student. We are not 'sticking' to Dr. Rhee or to any side. Dr. Rhee is not 'engineering' the new faction at all, but is trying to help the association."

Why should some of our guardian-minded ones care if the reptile has been located in our midst? The snake has not always been an ill omen. We read of the snake in the beginning of the Good Book, referred to as the most subtle of animals, and shortly after we learn of the tempter's great misdeed, which for some reason the entire animal family has been unable to forgive this one great wrong.

We must give the snake credit for furnishing Benjamin Franklin the subject of the first cartoon to appear in the United States, when the cartoon of the snake in sections was printed in all of the papers of the land, with the words "Unite and Conquer."

Then again we read where the editor of the New York Journal, known as the "fighting editor," (John Holt) dragged the snake from its hibernaculum and put it in the title of his paper in 1774, and on it appeared, "United now, free and alive, firm on this basis, Liberty shall stand, and thus supported ever bless our land till time becomes eternity."

This title cut was used with each issue of the paper till the time when the British occupied New York, then we are told that it was instrumental in saving the life of the "fighting editor," as when he hurriedly packed to move he placed it in his shirt-pocket and on the way to Poughkeepsie a bullet pierced his pocket and badly disfigured the head of the snake on the cut, and we are told that it was never more used for its original purpose, but that it was always to be found in the home of the "fighting editor."
